

UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Commerce (1996) - Reference

Article 5: Legal recognition of data messages. Information shall not be denied legal effect, validity or enforceability solely on the grounds that it is in the form of a data message.

Article 6: Writing. Where the law requires information to be in writing, that requirement is met by a data message if the information contained therein is accessible so as to be usable for subsequent reference.

Article 7: Signature. Where the law requires a signature, that requirement is met in relation to a data message if a method is used to identify the person and to indicate that person's approval.
